

Mohammad Mamun, Senior Research Officer
Cell: +8801912146407, +8801673534079
e-mail: mamun235@gmail.com

Mohammad Mamun is a sociologist and Senior Research Officer of Bangladesh Public Administration Training Centre (BPATC). Mr. Mamun did his Bachelor & Master from Department of Sociology, University of Dhaka. He had completed his 2nd Master on Public Policy from National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies (GRIPS), Japan under MEXT Scholarship. Mr. Mamun is working in BPATC since December 2011 which is the apex training institute in the public Sector mainly responsible for imparting training for the Civil Servant and also works as think tank of the Government.

He has worked various capacities in BPATC such as Assistant Director PPR (Planning, Programming & Recording), Logistic and Dormitory. He has also worked as Course Coordinator in 54 Foundation Training Course (FTC), P58th FTC, P60th FTC, P63rd FTC, 69th FTC, 70th FTC (outside BPATC) and 71st FTC which is mandatory for the newly recruited civil servants. He had completed and attained different training in home and abroad such as Foundation Training Course, Training of Trainers Course, Conflict Management and Negotiation Technique Course, Research Methodology Course, Report Writing Training, Training of Trainers on Children's Issues (Home) And Strategic Leadership Training(Singapore), International Kaizen Convention(Japan), Institutional Integrity Management and Good Governance (Hong Kong).

Mr. Mamun has a good commend (Reading, Writing and Speaking) in Bangla, English and Hindi (Speaking only). For training purpose, Mr. Mamun visited Japan, Sri Lanka, Thailand, Singapore, and Hong Kong.

Mr. Mamun has also participated different National and International Seminar such as Symposium and Conference as Paper Presenter and Rapporteur. Mr. Mamun worked as Research Associate as many as Nine Research Projects. He has worked as Research Associate and Joint Research Project Director as many as Ten Research Projects. He is also author of “The Impact of Social Safety Net Programmes on Poverty Reduction in Bangladesh: An Evidence from Old Age Allowance” Bangladesh Journal of Public Administration (BJPA), 27(1) and coauthor of “Understanding the Rohingya Crisis: A Comparative Analysis of the Citizenship Laws and Constitution of Myanmar” Bangladesh Journal of Public Administration (BJPA), 29(2) and “Attitude of Family towards Autistic Children: A Study Based on Dhaka City Corporation”. Lok Proshason Samoeeky, 63. He is also a coauthor of a Book Chapter Titled “Challenges of Artisanal Fishermen: A Case Study from Sonadia Island, Bangladesh”

He would love to work in Social Research especially in the area of Training & Development.

His areas of interest are Research, Managing the Training, Event Management, Networking and Communication. Mr. Mamun has different experience on various extra curriculum activities such as Debate, Badhon (Voluntary Blood Donate and Collection Organization) and BNCC (Naval Wing).

18.05.2021
Mohammad Mamun