

Curriculum Vitae of

Md. Atikuzzaman

Md. Atikuzzaman is one of the directors at Bangladesh Public Administration Training Centre (BPATC). Mr. Zaman is a faculty of BPATC, since 17th November 1993. Before join BPATC, he also worked as Land Management Officer Dhaka Development Authority (RAJUK). He also worked as Visiting Researcher in Asian Disaster Reduction Centre (ADRC), Japan. As a faculty of BPATC, he has extensive experience of working in different capacities in various training, teaching, and research fields.

Mr, Zaman studied Geography and Environment at the Jahangirnagar University of Dhaka. He pursued another Post-Graduation Master of Science degree in Environmental Science and Management from the University of York, the United Kingdom in 2007. Apart from the above degrees, Mr. Zaman completed a Post-Graduate Study at the Geneva University, Switzerland as a CERG fellow and UNU fellow of Twente (ITC) University, Netherlands on the subject of Multi-Hazard Risk Management and GIS. He also worked as a research fellow at Stockholm Environment Institute (SEI) of York, UK. Mr. Zaman awarded best poster paper from CERG, Switzerland and certified Total Quality Management (TQM) trainer of JICA. He also experienced as a facilitator in the "Managing At the Top-2 (MATT-2)" project which was conducted by DFID, UK.

He took professional training from Duke University, USA; Hong Kong University, Hong Kong; Yamaguchi University, Keio University, Japanese Red Cross Kyushu International University, Japan and MDIS Singapore.

Mr. Zaman facilitated more than 300 courses as Course Director/ Coordinator/ Facilitator. He engaged in different training academies/ institutes/organizations and worked at Bangladesh Earthquake Resilient Project (Technical Member), Strengthening the Environment, Forest and Climate Change Capacities of the Environment & Forest and its agencies (HRD- Technical Advisor Group Member), International Association for Urban Climate, Singapore (Working Member).